Cookie Policy
On this page, you will find more information about what cookies are, which cookies youmie.nl uses, and what you can do about them.

What are cookies?
Cookies are small text files that a website places on your computer, tablet or mobile phone when you visit the website. These cookies store information about your website visit. For example, cookies allow a website to recognise you on a subsequent visit. The use of cookies is not new; almost all websites use them. They are not harmful to your computer, and cookies do not know who you are.

This site uses three types of cookies:

Functional cookies
These cookies are necessary for this website to function. Without these functional cookies, this site will not work properly. This includes the general operation of the website, maintaining the user session and passing information from page to page when completing a form. This type of cookie does not store personal data.

Analytical cookies
Youmie uses Google Analytics to collect web statistics about the use of and visits to the website. Google Analytics places a permanent 'analytical' cookie on your computer, tablet or mobile phone, and this cookie records your use of the website.

Analytical cookies allow us to measure website visits: for example, how often our site is visited and what information visitors look for. This helps us understand which parts of the site are popular and how we can improve our website. The statistics we collect cannot be traced back to individuals. These data are therefore always used anonymously. Google Analytics helps us better understand the data.

Social media cookies
On some pages, Youmie uses YouTube or Vimeo videos. As a result, YouTube or Vimeo may place cookies.

How can I refuse/disable cookies?
You can configure your browser to determine which cookies should be accepted. You can refuse all cookies or only certain cookies. Please note that if you refuse all cookies, certain functionalities of this website may no longer work properly, or at all.

Changes
It is possible that our privacy and cookie policy will be expanded or amended over time. We therefore recommend that you check this page regularly to see whether any changes have been made.
